Samrit

A place at the table.
A community behind it.

Strict simplicity. Accountable food recovery.

Samaritan

Helping someone in need.
A nod to the Bill Emerson
Good Samaritan Food Donation Act.

Amrit

From Sanskrit amṛta: nectar.
Our interpretation: the essence of nourishment and care.

Steel & steam.
The kitchen is our starting point.

01 Steel is the structure.

Trucks, equipment, storage, records and reliable handoffs.

02 Steam is the purpose.

A warm meal, a welcoming space, and the dignity of being nourished.

LOGISTICS IN SERVICE OF A MEAL

Food exists. Need exists. The connection is missing.

47.9M

SMARTPHONE OWNERSHIP

Adults in households below $30K income. United States, 2026.

[S4] Pew Research Center

Phone ownership is an access proxy, not a measurement of food-insecure people. NYC network count combines service types.

Strict simplicity.
Accountable simplicity.

01

People seeking food first.

No account required to find meals.
The primary action is easy to see.

02

Accessible by intention.

Plain language, responsive screens,
visible choices and optional voice.

03

Simple does not mean opaque.

A clear next step for the person.
A clear record for the operator.

Four capabilities. One coherent experience.

01 Dignified discovery

Allergen and preference filtering, with optional voice assistance.

02 Menus into structured data

Gemini OCR creates editable dish candidates for human confirmation.

03 Traceable handoffs

QR events, photo hashes and location provenance in one record.

04 Private quality learning

Internal feedback helps the NGO guide donors and venues.

Four faces. A shared responsibility.

01

People seeking meals

Discover, choose, check in and review.

02

Distribution centers

Profile capacity, receive and verify.

03

Donors & organizers

Confirm menus, offer leftovers.

04

Central NGO

Approve, dispatch, review and guide.

The NGO face includes its driver mobile view. Drivers are provisioned by the NGO, not recruited through public signup.

Find a place that works for you.

01 Choose what fits.

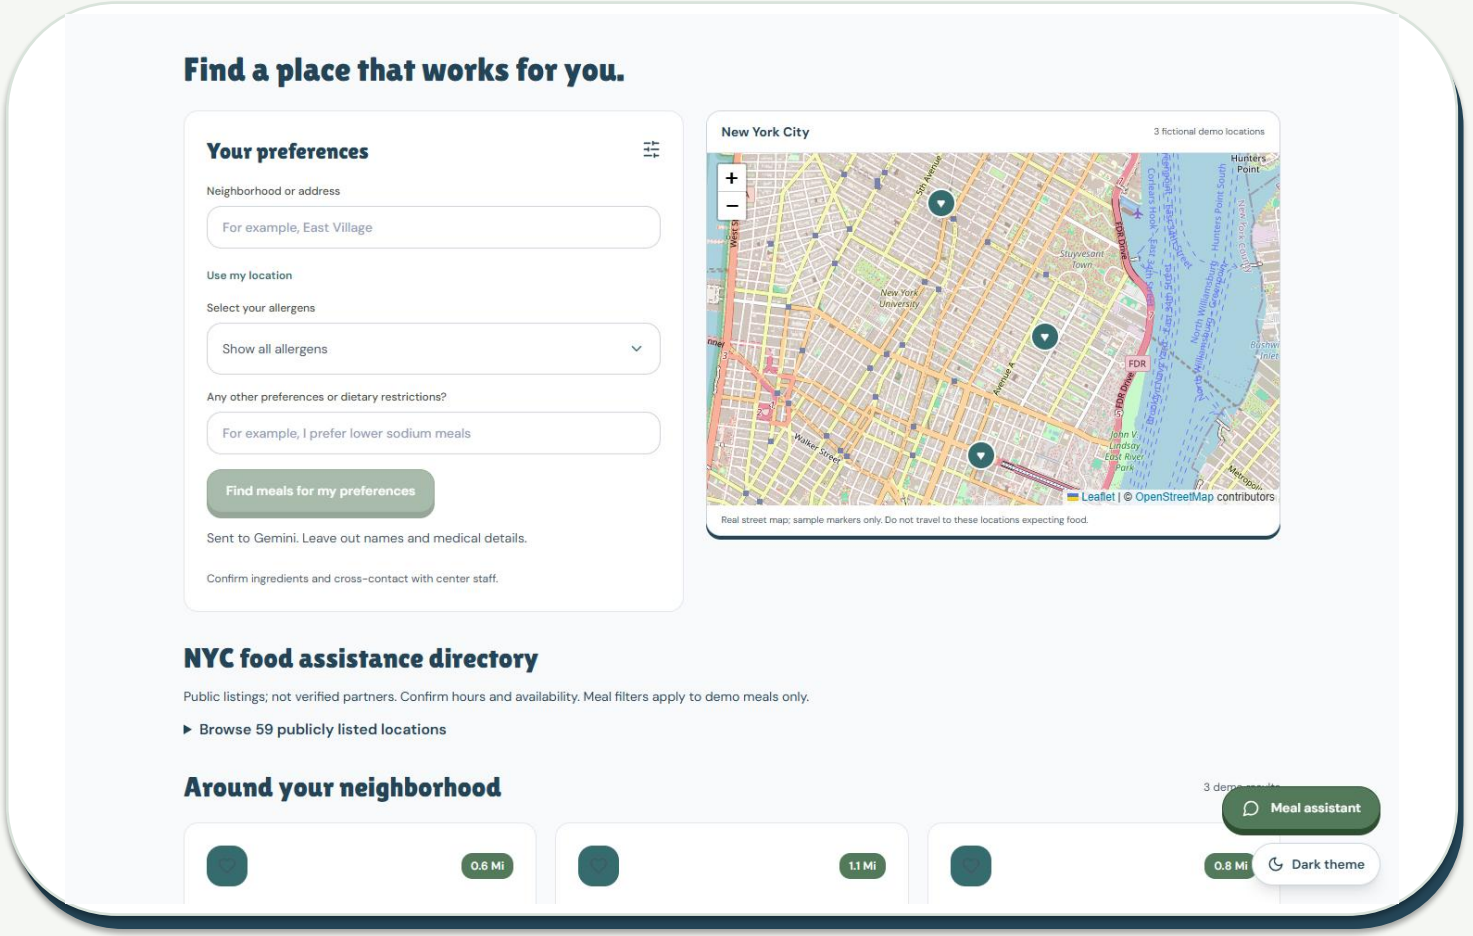

Nine major-allergen categories and natural-language preferences.

02 Stay in control.

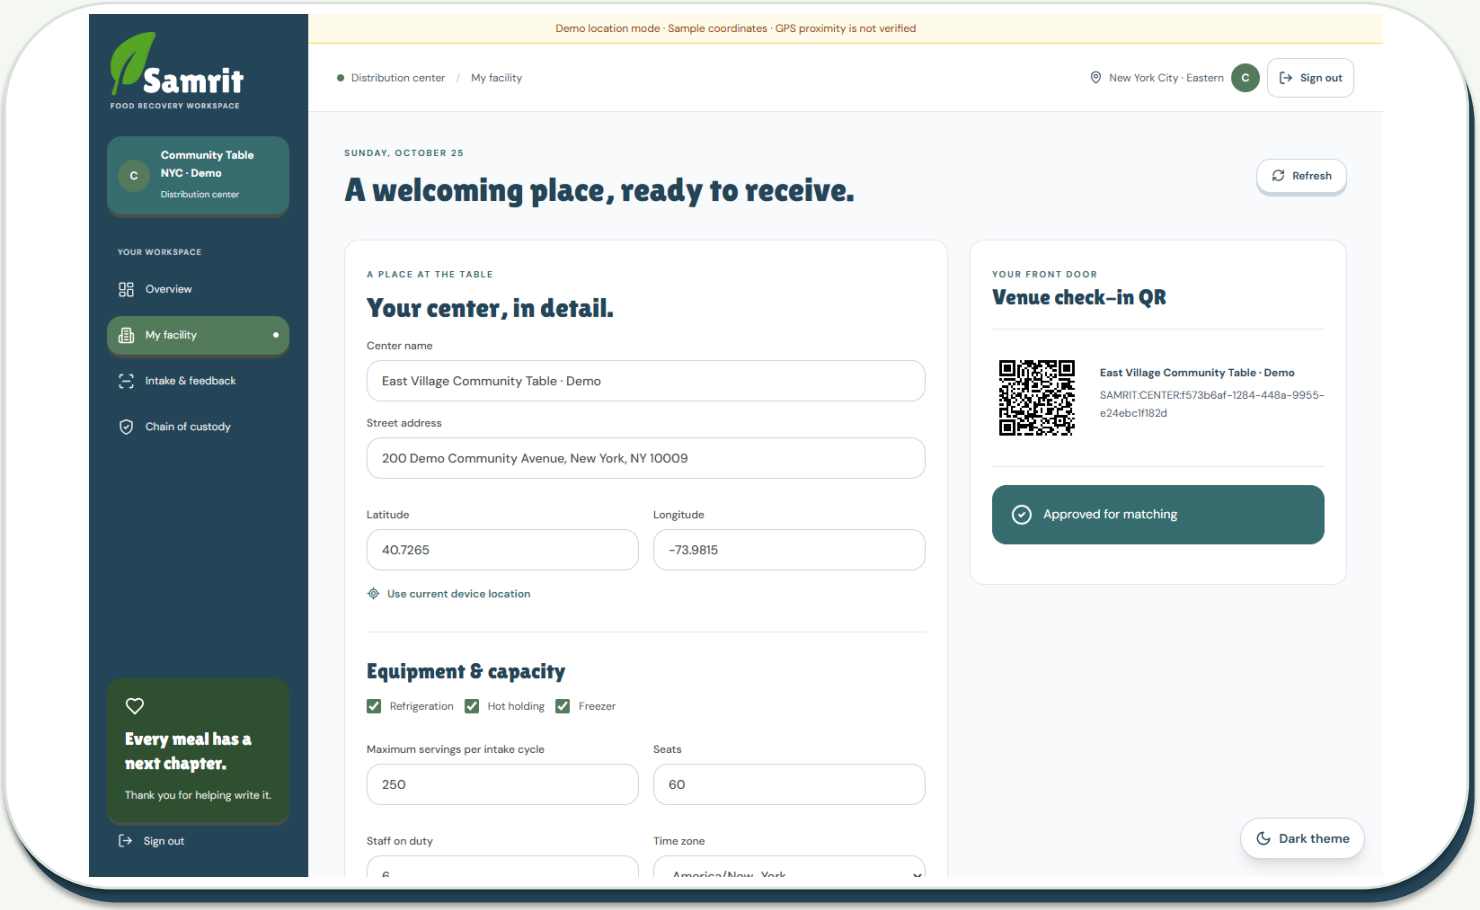

Visible selections, optional voice and no public account requirement.

03 Be heard privately.

One venue QR, finish the visit, then leave private feedback.

A welcoming place, ready to receive.

01 Capacity first.

Hours, seating, staffing and hot / chilled / frozen capability.

02 NGO-approved.

The central NGO verifies participating facilities.

03 Staff confirm intake.

A shared venue QR and staff arrival-photo confirmation.

From a menu photo to a rescue batch.

Traceability supports human review; it is not an immutable ledger or food-safety certificate. Demo GPS is clearly simulated.

Private feedback. Human guidance.

EXAMPLE FEEDBACK

“I waited a long time and did not receive a meal.”

A person’s experience matters.

01 Gemini assists the review.

Summarize concerns, flag patterns and assess evidence consistency.

02 The central NGO sees it.

Private operational learning, not public ratings or venue shaming.

03 People decide the response.

Follow up with donors and venues; use uncertainty to guide investigation.

A finish-button interval is approximate. AI cannot verify truthfulness, actual queue time or food safety.

One coordinated operational journey.
